

Have you ever wanted to read a book about a “bad” boy? The Fallen by Paul Langen takes place in the late 1960’s at a school called Bluford High. You can get a glimpse of the school where you will find mean teachers, mostly kids who are obedient to their parents, and some violence. You will hate Frannie, but love Martin, a good boy who lost his brother at age 8. Martin wants revenge for his brother’s death. I highly recommend this book for both males and females. I would give this book a 9 on a scale of 1-10.

Rosita Brown

